Interested? Submit application by Friday, September 16, 2022:
 annual film contest and host a student-led mental health or suicide prevention contest in at least one classroom/club, resulting in a number of submissions to the awareness event.

Directing Change Mini Grant Opportunity
FOR EDUCATORS

Don’t forget to post the flyer at school to get the word out!
Deadline to submit is September 30th!

This newsletter provides a list of curated resources and activities to support social emotional wellness. Share the journal electronically or download the individual positive coping skills for youth with easy to follow activities to enhance basic skills for social emotional wellness. Share the journal electronically or download the individual.

September is Suicide Prevention Month: How do you know if you should be concerned?

There is hope. Suicide is preventable.

Try out one or more of these activities!

Students can create films about suicide prevention, mental health, and Hope & Justice. The program is free to students, counselors, and educators. The film contest includes 6 submission categories: Suicide Prevention, Mental Health, Animated Short, Youth Led, Leadership, and Critical Health. Since its launch in 2012, the annual film contest has returned for its 11th year! This year’s contest will feature student filmmakers and their communities. The program is free to educators and students in California, Idaho, and Nevada.

This newsletter provides a list of curated resources and activities to support social emotional wellness. Share the journal electronically or download the individual positive coping skills for youth with easy to follow activities to enhance basic skills for social emotional wellness. Share the journal electronically or download the individual.

Directing Change Mini Grant Opportunity
FOR EDUCATORS

Don’t forget to post the flyer at school to get the word out!
Deadline to submit is September 30th!

This newsletter provides a list of curated resources and activities to support social emotional wellness. Share the journal electronically or download the individual positive coping skills for youth with easy to follow activities to enhance basic skills for social emotional wellness. Share the journal electronically or download the individual.