

Not me

When days seem unconquerable and i find myself lost an escape with words is what's i've always turned to words enter my mind, help me to ease slip into a world of your own one where your imagination is the key "why do you like reading' im nothing without words .i'm not me my bones ,are the pages ,ink being my blood .
I wonder if anyone else feels like how I feel like if your wearing your favorite outfit and just fell in mud my thoughts like a lion in a cage ,trapped, enraged without a meal i pour them into a page and let them be free .
Without my words I am nothing .
I'm not me
